Are you fascinated with the beautiful, majestic, and perhaps even secretive creatures, which are nowadays increasingly threatened with extinction? Well, if your answer is yes, then you are just about to experience a real adventure, a journey you'll never forget. First and foremost, you will have to prepare for it. You will have to learn to hunt down your prey, to climb trees and thus gather some materials, and of course, you will have to learn to teach your young about the art of survival.

Over the past years, games like "GTA" and "Far Cry" have depicted orangutan habitats as being full of life and almost untouched by man. But in reality, they are often anything but that, and they are indeed experiencing an unprecedented decline.

So, we developed "Orang Safari" to show you how you can play a small part in this, a game that you can enjoy and educate people about at the same time. "Orang Safari" is a sophisticated educational, entertaining game where you guide a wild orangutan across the lush forests of Kalimantan, an Indonesian province that includes the country's most important biodiversity hotspot, the Ketam Biodiversity hotspot. In “Orang Safari”, you will learn to become an expert hunter, while, on the other hand, it is the orangutan’s purpose to help you build your own orangutan sanctuary. So, you are going to have to walk, talk, and eventually even climb trees! - The environment has been designed in 3D using real data. You will get a detailed look at the real-life wildlife and forests in the Ketam Biodiversity hotspot. - Over 450 different creatures will be shown in 3D, along with their life patterns, habitats, and behaviors. - The game includes 5 different orangutan species, such as the Bornean orangutan, the Sumatran orangutan, the Bornean pygmy elephant orangutan, the Sumatran elephant orangutan, and the critically endangered spotted orangutan. - 30 different sounds are used to depict sounds typical of orangutans, elephants, 82157476af
